"Mold!" Connecting to Collections Care Online Community Webinars. Accessed May 19, 2017. <https://www.connectingtocollections.org/moldrecording/>

Connecting to Collections helps smaller cultural institutions to provide well-informed care for valuable collections. Tara Kennedy, Preservation Field Services Librarian, Yale University Library, provides information on mold in this 90-minute webinar.

Columbia University Libraries, Special Collections Materials Survey Instrument:

http://library.columbia.edu/services/preservation/survey_tools.html

In 2003, Columbia University Libraries (CUL) received funds from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to carry out a one-year survey of unprocessed and under-processed archival collections. Using the model developed by the Historical Society of Pennsylvania (HSP), which includes extensive explanations of the access, condition, and value ratings, an effective workflow was planned in accordance with the design of the survey instrument, a Microsoft Access database.

Archivists' Toolkit: <http://www.archiviststoolkit.org>

First open source archival data management system to provide broad, integrated support for the management of archives. Superseded by ArchivesSpace.

ArchivesSpace: <http://archivesspace.org/>

Next-generation web-based archives information management system, designed by archivists and supported by diverse archival repositories.

Encoded Archival Description (EAD): <https://www.loc.gov/ead/>
