List of apps from the chat of Pam Seabolt's webinar "My Favorite Tech Tools and Shortcuts for Busy Library Staff" 2-17-2020

Link to Pam Seabolt's Wakelet board – "Favorite Tech Tools for Busy Librarians"

- Apple Notes – scan documents to pdf, quick notes, checklists, images, handwritten notes, sync to your devices (iOS)
- Calm! – mindfulness app for sleep, meditation & relaxation (iOS and Android)
- CamScanner – scan docs to email, fax, print or save (iOS and Android)
- Canva – design app for logos, cads, invitations, posters, signs, etc. (iOS and Android)
- Castbox – podcast player for podcasts (iOS and Android)
- Duckduckgo – an internet search engine that emphasized protecting searchers' privacy
- Evernote – powerful tool for taking notes (iOS and Android)
- Evernote Scannable - integrates with Evernote so that your scans will be synced with your Evernote account (iOS and Android)
- Genius Scan – basically a scanner in your pocket (iOS and Android)
- GoodReads – world's largest site for readers and book recommendations, you can see what your friends are reading, keep track of what you read and has a barcode scanner to add books into your "to read" list (iOS and Android)
- Google Keep – capture, edit, share & collaborate on your notes on any device, anywhere and also set reminders (iOS and Android)
- Google Maps – real time navigation, traffic and transit information, also latest information on businesses (hours, location, phone) (iOS and Android)
- Google Slides – create, edit and collaborate presentations; present presentations from your device; live closed captioning available (iOS and Android)
- Google Voice – a voicemail service from Google (iOS and Android)
- iScan – document and PDF scanner for Apple devices (iOS)
- LastPass – password manager that stores your passwords (iOS and Android)
- LibraryThing – members can catalog browse their collections (iOS and Android)
- Measure/level – turns your iPhone or iPad into a tape measure and a level (similar apps on Androids)
- Microsoft OneNote – take notes, share ideas, organize, and collaborate and syncs across your devices (iOS and Android)
- Mobile Doc Scanner – on Google Play for Android devices (Android)
- MorgueFile - copyright free photos (web-based)
- NatureSpace – immersive, spatially accurate, 3D recordings for relaxation and quieting the mind (iOS and Android)
- Pocket – capture content that comes at your all day, curate stories, articles, news from any device (iOS and Android)
- Polaroid Originals – turn your digital photos into Polaroid pictures and more (iOS and Android)
- QR Code readers – used for displays (one person linked an article for exercises for a "New Year, New You" display
- Relax Melodies – an efficient sleep aid app (iOS and Android)
- Remind.com – communication for school, home and everywhere in between; for texting a group of people (web-based)
- Reminisce Personal Historian - used for preserving pics and it's made by a former Indiana librarian! (Android)

- Shazam – identify any song in seconds (iOS and Android)
- Slack – brings team communication and collaboration into one place – organize by topics, projects, message the group, share and edit documents and more (iOS and Android)
- Snapseed – complete and professional photo editor developed by Google (iOS and Android)
- SoundHound – identify music playing around you (iOS and Android)
- TickTick: To-Do List and Calendar – organize everything in life and manage all your to-dos (iOS and Android)
- Trello – visually collaborate with anyone, anywhere, manage team project or tasks (iOS and Android)
- Wordart.com – online word cloud art creator (web-based)